BACK INTO THEIR SEATS.

THE TRANSFORMATION WROUGHT BY JUDGE M'CUE IN BROOKLYN.

Putting the Outs from the Police Department Back in their Places—A Beciston that May Partly Destroy the Republican Triumph. The muddle in the Brooklyn Police Department took a new turn yesterday by the decision of Judge Alexander McQue in favor of the old Commissioners, Messre. Leich and Pyburn, who had been considered practically ousted from thier offices by the action of the Auditor and Comptroller in reconsidering the appointment of Mr. Leich as Excise Commissioner and appointing Capt W. L. B. Stears to the place. Judge McCue's decision restrains Gen. Jourdan from acting as the single head of the department, or in any way interfering with three Commissioners, or refusing to act with the old Commissioners. Judge McCue, in his opinion, after describing the situation and the acts of the Legislature governing it, says that it was clear that the appointment of Mr. Stears was premature, invalid, and hence inoperative to accomplish the new organization of the Police and Excise Department. Mr. Leich, one pointed Excise Commissioner on the 16th day of June. Seven days, therefore, only had elapsed before the appointment of Mr. Stears was attempted. The act, it is true, did not, in express terms, designate any time within which the person appointed should qualify. If the charter of the city of Brooklyn was regarded as applicable in this instance. Leich had ten days bond. But if the charter does not apply then. under the general provisions of the Revised under the general provisions of the Revised Statutes, Leich had fifteen days within which to qualify.

"In either case," the Judge continues, "Leich's appointment to office was valid, and not subject to revocation; his appointment had not as yet been forfeited, he had neither de clined nor resigned, and there was no place or stead' to which Mr. Stears could be legally appointed. There was no vacancy to be filled until after Leich had failed or refused to qualify, and in this connection it is proper to state that we do not agree with the views expressed by one of the learned counsel for the plaintiffs, that because no time has been named within which Mr. Leich should qualify, he can postpone indefinitely the filing of the oath of office and bond. Such a construction as this would absorbately nullify the law. We are bound to assume that the Legislature intended the law to take effect, and we are of opinion that if Mr. Leich shall fall to qualify within the time fixed by law, whatever that may be, a vacancy will have been created, which may be filled by the appointing power.

"It follows, therefore, that at the time of the Dower. It follows, therefore, that at the time of the

"It follows, therefore, that at the time of the commencement of this action (June 24, 1880) there had been no valid appointment and qualification of the three Commissioners' (one Police and two Excise Commissioners) who were to take the place of those in office at the time of the passage of the act; and that the Department of Police and Excise Commissioners' (one partment of Police and Excise remains constituted as it was prior to the 25th day of May, 1880, and that the department as thus constituted so composed of the defendant as President thereof, and of the plaintiffs as Police and Excise Commissioners."

Judge McCue decides that he has no power to compel Gen. Jourdan to attend the meetings of the Board or to give any special or particular lattention to the duties of the office, but suggests that if Gen. Jourdan willully and persistently neglects the duties of the office, there is a way in which he can be reached and removed from office. The Judge concludes to restrain Gen. Jourdan from giving orders and pretending to act as Police Commissioner, because if the acts complained of are persisted in they are certain to prove subversive of good order, discipline, and efficiency in the police force, and may seriously endanger the safety of life and property.

The decision proved a complete surprise to and efficiency in the police force, and "may seriously endanger the safety of life and property.

The decision proved a complete surprise to nearly all the politicians. The new chief cierk, Isaac B. Crane, instantly threw aside his previously dejected air, and seemed as light as a feather as he raced into Police Headquarters, exclaiming, "We've won." He looked around for his rival chief clerk, Samuel Richards, but the latter had locked up his desk and gone for the day. Gen. Jourdan, who visited Headquarters early in the day, also went away before the contestants arrived. Commissioner Pyburn, who claimed that he was now as much a Commissioner as ever, visited headquarters, and, finding the chief clerk absent, and supposing that he had locked the papers up, said that if somebody didn't look out somebody might get ento Raymond street jail. Messrs, Leich and Pyburn then officially notified Police Superintendent Campbell of the decision of Judge McCue, relieving him of any conflict of authority in the matter. The Superintendent was also directed to notify the department that Isaac B. Crane had been appointed chief clerk, and must be recognized as such. The Commissioners also appointed James Short, a brother of Dennis Short, clerk to Mayor Howell, as patrolman, and assigned him to duty in the Fifth Precinct.

The Common Council, yesterday afternoon man, and assigned film to duty in the Precinct.

The Common Council yesterday afternoon tabled the resignation of Isaac B. Crane as clerk to the Common Council committees, by a vote of 12 to 10.

The complication is further increased by the fact that the appointing power has, by large of the limit of time provided by the Legislature, passed from the Auditor and the Comptroller. If Mr. Leich dees not qualify within fifteen days from the date of his appointment a vacancy will from the date of his appointment a vacancy will If Mr. Leich does not qualify within litteen days from the date of his appointment a vacancy will exist, according to Judge McCue's decision, to be filled by the appointing power, which is then in the Mayor's hands, and the Mayor, being a Democrat, will not take action to complete the Republican victory. By keeping the Board as hitherto constituted, Mr. Pyburn and Mr. Leich both serving the Democrats, the Police Department will remain in Democratic control.

GEORGE WILKES TROTTERS.

A Large Sale of Young Roadsters Bred in At the New York Tattersall's yesterday

Mr. Z. E. Simmons sold a lot of colts, geldings, and fillies, recently brought from Kentucky. nearly all of which were the get of the famous trotting stallion George Wilkes.

FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Indge Freedman Proposes to Punish Wm. H. Martin and S. C. Piatt. The litigation over the property of Nathan C. Platt, who died July 4, 1863, leaving an cetate of $250,000, is about to be marked by the punishment of two of the prominent persons connected with it, for contempt of court. Mrs. Catharine Cooke, one of the heirs, after waiting sixteen Cooke, one of the heirs, after waiting sixteen years for her share, got an order from Judge Freedman last September, removing the executors and appointing James M. Smith receiver, to take charge of the property. But, in spite of an express order of the Court restraining them to take charge of the property. But, in spite of an express order of the Court restraining them from interfering with the receiver. William R. Martin and Sponcer C. Platt have sought to further protract the litigation and prolong the estiment of the estate by an effort to get an order from the Supreme Court restraining the receiver from acting. Thereuvon application was made to Judge Freedman to have William R. Martin and Spencer C. Platt punished for contempt of court. This motion has been granted by Judge Freedman in the following terms:

The motion noticed in the Supreme Court for an order enjoining and restraining the receiver of this court from interned by Judge Freedman in the following terms:

The motion noticed in the Supreme Court for an order enjoining and restraining the receiver of this court from interned by the plantiff saturery, is a plant violation of the order of this court dated Feb. 3, 1885, as modified Feb. 10, 1880; as modified Feb. 10, 1880; and from the affidavits accompanying the notice of motion it appears to be a new trick and device resorted to by the persons whose practices in the management of the catae to Nathan C. Platt, deceased, have been twice severely condemned by this court, after full hearing and mature deliberation, to still further complicate matters. The motion to punishment be granted, with costs and the punishment to be imposed should be sufficiently severe for the occasion. As to tes precise extent coursel will be heart on the settlement of the order, for which one day's notice should be granted.

Judge Freedman gave a shart r. Leat and sion. As to its precise extrat counsel will be heard on the sttlement of the order, for which one day's notice should be granted.

Judge Freedman gave a sharp r wake to the executors, Wim. H. Pleit, Spencer C. Platt, and Nathan C. Platt, and to Wim. R. Martin isset September, when the colinion was filed granting an order removing the executors from their trust, Judge Freedman then condemned the action of Mr. Martin in retaining $69,000 for counsel fees and expenses out of $115,369,23 that he had collected for the estate. Mrs. Catharine Cooke, daughter of the dead man, got only $6,591 each, and Wim. H. Platt, another brother, who was working with Mr. Martin, got $26,000. Mrs. Cooke did not know until long afterward how much Mr. Slartin had received. Judge Freedman plainly said that he did not believe the statement of W. R. Martin or Wim. H. Platt, and that in his coinion they had entered into a combination to benefit themselves at the expense of the estate, and especially at the expense of Mrs. Cooke, in concluding his opinion Judge Freedman then said: "In the history of the estate a point has now been reached where it has become of paramount importance to the interests of all justly entitled to share them, that further division of proceeds should be stopped; that all just claims against the estate shall be speedily determined, and discharged, and the estate be protected from the assertion of unjust claims, so that something may remain after the satisfaction of all charges against it, to be distributed among the heirs according to the crovisions of the will and the intentions of the testator."

ions of the will and the intentions of the testator.

Judge Bedgylck, in an opinion rendered this month, says of the three executors referred to: Undisputed testimony makes it very clear that they have so neglected and violated their obligations that Mrs. Cooke should be protected by the appointment of a receiver to conduct, as administrator, the estate."

Mesers, Martin and Spencer C. Platt have field affidavits that they did not intend to be guilty of contempt, but Judge Freedman appears to have a very decided opinion on the subject, and to be only in doubt as to the amount of punishment to be inflicted.
